

TORRANCE YOUTH KILLED IN CRASH

One Torrance teen-ager was killed and two injured when their home-bound car skidded broadside into an 8-ton truck-trailer one block west of Crenshaw boulevard.

Rosecrans avenue a week ago Wednesday.

A total of four high school students were killed and three others injured, one critically, in the tragedy.

Killed was Harold A. Singleton, 18, the driver, of 18036 Regina street, Torrance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Singleton. Funeral services were held Monday.

Others who died included: Kenneth, 14, of 15441 Greville avenue, Lawndale; Margie Claimo, 16, of 15623 South Gramercy Place, Gardena; Emilio Goy, 14, of 4707 Redondo Beach boulevard, Lawndale.

Injuries
Taken to Centinella Hospital Inglewood, with injuries were: Charles Slaten, 16, of 18329 Roslin avenue, Torrance, listed over the week-end as "slightly improved but still critical" by hospital attendants.

Richard Weber, 17, of 4324 178th street, Torrance, listed as in good condition.

Dorothy Young, 15, of 4714 West 164th street, Lawndale, in good condition.

The driver of the truck, George Maddux, 45, of 1236 Duncan avenue, was uninjured. Weber told California Highway Patrol officers that Singleton was driving east on the three-lane street. He passed a car and as he did so saw the huge truck bearing down on him.

Swerves
Singleton cut back in swiftly, slamming on the brakes to avoid a collision.

The car spun wildly. It missed the car it had overtaken but crashed sideways against the oncoming truck.

Singleton, Weber, and Miss Young were hurled from the car. Singleton was crushed to death when he fell below the truck's wheels.

Impact of the crash hurled the two girls who died through the rear seat upholstery and framework into the luggage compartment.

The tragedy occurred after the boys, all students at Torrance High school, called for the girls at Leuzinger High school to drive them home.
